

"THE MONKEY AND THE LION"

Words and Music by: Monroe Alfrey

From the top of the trees to the valley below the word was spreading and I'm sure you know that the lion and the monkey put out the call to all the creatures come one and come all bring your instruments or clap your hands cause the lion and the monkey are starting a band

Oh the bear he was there and he played the guitar so he joined the band with the lion on bass and the monkey on drums they set out across the land the zebra sang off key so he just clapped his hands and the lion and the monkey had started a band

The elephant blew his mighty horn and the snake played tambourine with the rhino on the xylo and giraffe singing lead it was the craziest band you've ever seen

Now they have lots of fun and play wherever they can the lion and the monkey and their traveling band
